About this book

This book is by Canberra Community Law.

When you see the word we, it means Canberra Community Law.

This book explains NTLAS.

NTLAS stands for Night Time Legal Advice Service.

NTLAS gives you free legal help on Tuesday nights from 6pm to 8pm.

Help can be on the phone or by email.

How can NTLAS help?

We give one-off help with many legal problems.

We can help you with fines.

Fines means you are told to pay money because you broke a law. For example traffic fines.

We can help you with job problems.

We can help you make a complaint.

A complaint is when you say you are not happy with a product or service.

What NTLAS cannot do

NTLAS does not give ongoing help or help face to face.

NTLAS does not help with all legal problems.

NTLAS cannot help with

- housing

- Centrelink

- disability or race discrimination.

Discrimination means you are treated unfairly because of who you are.

Canberra Community Law has other services to help in these areas.

NTLAS does not help with immigration or refugee problems.

Immigration means you move from one country to another country.
